05	0.0	UNIFORM ATTENDANCE AND LEAVE POLICY ACT (SUBCHAPTER 2 OF CHAPTER 4 OF TITLE 21 OF THE ARKANSAS CODE)
,	1.0	EMPLOYEE LEAVE POLICY
	1.1	This leave policy applies to all State employees except emer- gency, hourly, intermittent, extra help, per diem employees, and those employed by the following agencies:
		A. The elected constitutional officers of the State and their employees.
		B. The General Assembly and its employees, including employees of the Bureau of Legislative Research of the Arkansas Legislative Council and the Division of Legislative Audit.
,		C. Members of the Arkansas Supreme Court, Circuit and Chancery Courts, Prosecuting Attorneys, and the Administrative Office of the Courts.
		D. State Highway Department.
		E. All administrative, academic, or other non-classified employees of the state supported institutions of higher education.
	1.2	The establishment of leave records and internal procedures are the responsibility of each agency and institution. Policy and procedures such as requesting leave, approving authority or leave use may be covered. All employees should be informed of statewide policy as well as any internal policy and procedure.
	1.3	When an officer or employee of a state office or agency excluded from the provisions of the Uniform Attendance and Leave Policy Act by the definition of "state agencies" in Arkansas Code 21-4-203(1) leaves employment of the excluded office or agency and becomes employed by an agency or institution which is subject to the Uniform Attendance and Leave Policy Act, the period of employment with the excluded office or agency shall be included as state employee service for the purpose of determining the rate at which the employee earns paid annual leave.

05	2.4	Years of employment may be continuous state employment or an accumulation of years of service when the employee was out of State service for a time. Effective July 1, 1975, prior service is established in completed years of service only. Service prior to July 1, 1975, will be established in completed years and months of service.
	2.5	An employee may not earn annual leave when on leave without pay for ten (10) or more cumulative days within a calendar month.
	2.6	An employee may request to use accrued annual leave at any time. The Agency Director or Institution Head may grant the leave request at such time that will least interfere with the efficient operation of the agency.
	2.7	Annual leave is granted on the basis of work days, not calendar days. Non-work days, such as holidays and weekends, are not charged as annual leave.
	2.8	Annual leave must be earned before it can be used. Employees will accrue half their monthly accrual of annual leave if employed on the first (1st) working day of the month and work through the 15th of that month. Employees will accrue half their monthly accrual if employed on the 16th of the month and work through the last working day of that month. (If the 16th falls on a weekend or holiday, accrual begins on the first (1st) working day, thereafter.)
		Employees will not borrow from anticipated future accruals and may not use annual leave accrued by other employees.
	2.9	The minimum annual leave amount an employee can use is fifteen (15) minutes. No smaller amounts shall be authorized or used.
	2.10	Employees continue to earn annual leave at their normal accrual rate when on annual or sick leave.
	2.11	All compensatory time may be used before the use of annual leave.
	2.12	Employees transferring without a break in service, between State agencies and/or State supported institutions of higher education which are covered by these policies shall retain all accumulated annual leave.

	3.11	leave shall be charged in the following order: (1) earned sick leave; (2) earned annual leave; (3) leave without pay. (See Section 105, 5.0-1)
	3.12	Employees who are on sick leave for five (5) or more consecutive days must furnish a certificate of illness from an attending physician. An agency or institution which has a written procedure to identify patterns of sick leave usage may require an employee to furnish a certificate from an attending physician for any use of sick leave. A certificate from a Christian Science practitioner listed in the Christian Science Journal may be submitted in lieu of a physician's certificate.
	3.13	Accrued sick leave will be restored to an employee's credit it he returns to State employment within six (6) months of termination. This provision shall apply only if the employee was terminated due to budgetary reasons or curtailment of work activities.
	3.14	Requests to use sick leave for purposes of medical, dental or optical examinations, hospital stays, funerals, etc. should be made in advance.
	3.15	Notification of absence due to illness shall be given as soon as possible on the first day of absence to the employee's supervisor.
	3.16	Application for sick leave is to be filed within two (2) days after the employee's return to work.
	3.17	If an employee fails to make proper notification for use of sick leave as provided herein, such absences shall be charged to annual leave or leave without pay. Such determination sha be made at the Agency Director's or Institution Head's discre- tion.
4	3.18	Employees transferring without a break in service between State agencies and/or State supported institutions of higher education which are covered by these policies shall retain al accumulated sick leave.
	3.19	School teachers or other certified personnel employed by a school district who transfer to another school district, an educational cooperative, or a position requiring certificatio approved by the Department of Education in a state agency sha be granted credit in the new position for up to ninty (90) da unused sick leave accumulated in the former position.

105	11.8	This reinstatement right shall be valid only if the employee seeks re-employment, by application, within 90 days of his/her release from active duty; except in the case of an employee ordered to an initial period of active duty in a branch of the military reserves for training of not less than three (3) consecutive months. These returning Reservists are entitled to reinstatement rights for a period of 31 days after release from active duty, subject to the same terms and conditions as returning veterans. In both cases, this eligibility for reemployment rights may be extended by provisions stated in the Veterans' Re-employment Rights Statute.
	11.9	The reinstated employee will not lose any seniority rights with respect to leave accrual rates, salary increases, Reduction—in—Force policies, or other benefits and privileges of employment.
	11.10	Former employees returning to State service after military service, but who extended their enlistment or re-enlisted for additional military service beyond the initial period for more than a period of four (4) years (or five (5), when re-enlistment was at the request of the military) will lose all reinstatement rights and will be considered a rehire.
	11.11	Permanent, full-time state employees who are called to active duty in emergency situations (and in situations covered by 10 United States Code Section 12304) as declared by the Governor or President shall be granted leave with pay. The period of leave with pay will not exceed thirty (30) working days. Periods beyond the thirty (30) day limit may be charged to annual leave at the employee's option and, if necessary, to to leave without pay.
	11.12	Military leave for emergency situations is granted in addition to annual military leave for training purposes and normal vacation time.

105	12.0	TRANSFER OF LEAVE BETWEEN STATE AGENCIES AND/OR INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION
	12.1	When an employee transfers between State agencies and/or institutions of higher education which are covered by these policies, the unused portion of his/her annual and sick leave will also be transferred. (See Section 105, Sub-Section 3.19 concerning certified public school employees.)
	12.2	The amount of leave to be transferred shall not exceed the accrual limits established in this Policy. (See Section 105, Sub-Sections 2.12 and 3.18.)
	12.3	The receiving agency will be responsible for verifying the employee's accrued leave with the relinquishing agency.
	12.4	When an officer or employee of a state office or agency excluded from the provisions of the Uniform Attendance and Leave Policy Act by the definition of "state agencies" in Arkansas Code 21/4/203(1) leaves employment of the excluded office or agency and becomes employed by an agency or institution which is subject to the Uniform Attendance and Leave Policy Act, the period of employment with the excluded office or agency shall be included as state employee service for the purpose of determining the rate at which the employee earns paid annual leave.

105	13.0	LEAVE AND ATTENDANCE RECORDKEEPING REQUIREMENTS
	13.1	Each agency/institution of higher education shall establish and maintain leave and attendance records to account for:
		A. Actual hours worked for all non-exempt employees.
		B. Compensatory time and/or overtime earned and paid/taken for all non-exempt employees.
		C. Holidays worked and not worked for all employees.
		D. Leave accounting records to record both leave accrued and leave taken for all employees.
	13.2	Agencies/institutions should also establish recordkeeping pro- cedures which provide for:
		A. Opening and closing of records on an annual basis.
		B. Internal audit of all time and attendance records on an annual basis.
		C. Records retention procedures for transferred or terminated employees.
	13.3	The agency/institution may establish their own records provided the above requirements are met. The following forms are suggested for use:
		A. Employee Time and Attendance Sheet
		B. Employee Leave Request Form
		C. Employee Leave Record Form
		D. Proof of Prior Service Form
		Suggested formats for these forms may be found at the end of Section 100, State and Federal Legislative Policies.
105	14.0	DISASTER SERVICE VOLUNTEER LEAVE
	14.1	An employee of a state agency, not including state-supported institutions of higher education, who is trained and certified as a disaster service volunteer by the American Red Cross, whose specialized disaster relief services are requested by the Red Cross in connection with a disaster, (as defined in A.C.A. 12-75-103(2)) and who requests Disaster Service Volunteer Leave and obtains consent from his/her state agency director, may be granted leave from work with pay for not more than fifteen (15) working days in any twelve-month calendar year

ection 00	Section 0.0	STAR PROGRAM - EXECUTIVE ORDER 94-09
	1.0	State Temporaries Active in Retirement (STAR) is a special program designed to assist agencies/institutions with their temporary employment needs by utilizing retirees from State government. Under the direction of the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the STAR program provides eligible state retirees the opportunity to return to state service in temporary assignments.
	1.2	OPM maintains a file of qualified STAR partaicipants for referral to agencies/institutions requesting a temporary employee. Each agency/institution utilizing the STAR program pays the temporary employee from extra help positions or regular salary positions. STAR participants hired in regular salary positions are eligible for rates of pay consistent with those authorized in the Uniform Classification and Compensation Plan, including exceptionally well qualified and prevailing Labor Market special entry rates. Those participants hired in extra-help positions are eligible for rates of pay consistent with the class/grade for their assigned position, not to exceed level IV of that class/grade or the maximum salary authorized.
·	1.3	While working on temporary assignments, STAR employees are expected to comply with all policies established by the employing agency/institution. STAR employees may not accrue vacation or sick days and may not be paid for holidays unless they actually work the last scheduled work day before and at least one hour the first scheduled work day following the holiday. The employing agency/institution is responsible for all payroll documents, payroll taxes and timekeeping records.
	1.4	You may contact the OPM STAR referral service at 682-1823.

- 2. Once an agency director has determined that the goods or services meet this criteria, the sales representative will. be allowed to post a notice on a designated bulletin board within the agency specifying the nature of the goods and service to be solicited and stating that on a given day a representative will be present (either before or after working hours) to make the presentation. Beyond the posting of the notice on the designated bulletin board, there will be no announcements, letters, or bulletins issued by the sales representative or anyone employed in the agency. It is the responsibility of each agency director to see that an appropriate bulletin board is obtained and used for this purpose as well as the posting of other notices of interest to employees.
- 3. The agency director is responsible for security of the office before and/or after hours when solicitations are made and for securing the premises after the presentation.
- 4. Under certain conditions, agency directors may authorize informational sessions and/or sign-up opportunities during working hours. These include cafeteria benefit plans and officially-sanctioned deferred compensation plans and group insurance products approved by the State Employees/Public School Personnel Board. Additionally, AR Code 19-4-1602 provides that agencies on the AHRMS Payroll System may allow companies that had a payroll slot prior to 1985 the right to continue selling and servicing their product. Questions concerning these deviations may be addressed to the agency payroll office or the Department of Finance and Administration, Office of Administrative Services, State and Public School Insurance Office.

TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT - GPD #6 2.11

All requests for travel reimbursement shall be reasonable, true and accurate. Managers shall be responsible for review and initial approval of proposed work-travel plans of all subordinates as well as final approval of their travel reimbursement vouchers. Any violation of this policy statement may be cause for dismissal.

All advanced travel funds shall be properly vouchered or repaid within thirty calendar days maximum after completion of travel.

Approval authority for out-of-state travel may be delegated by department directors to subordinate levels of management. Heads of independent agencies may approve such travel for themselves and employees of their agency.

The minimum of out-of-state travel commensurate with effective and efficient operation is the goal. Specific justification and cost estimates should be used in evaluating each request.

	15.1	Special rates of pay are provided to attract employees to state service where it has been demonstrated that market conditions make it difficult to recruit at the normal entry rate, or where the applicant has exceptional qualifications.
220	16.0	EXCEPTIONALLY WELL-QUALIFIED - SPECIAL ENTRY RATES
	16.1	In those instances where an applicant's background and experience qualifies him/her to perform the job with very little or substantially less orientation and training than other qualified applicants, the Office of Personnel Management may recommend and the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State may approve special entry rates up to Pay Level IIM. The Office of Personnel Management, with the review of the Arkansas Legis—lative Council, may approve special entry rates up to Pay Level IV. However, requests may be approved only after an agency provides documentation that no current employee could have been promoted as an equivalent alternative to the exceptionally well-qualified applicant. Agencies and institutions must follow the procedures established by the Office of Personnel Management in requesting special entry rates for exceptionally well-qualified applicants. 225	11.0	CONCURRENT EMPLOYMENT BY TWO STATE AGENCIES OR INSTITUTIONS
	11.1	An employee may work for two agencies or institutions concurrently, provided that a request is made by agency or institution head(s) to the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State and provided that the combined salary payments from the agencies or institutions do not exceed the larger maximum annual salary of the line item position authorized for either agency or institution from which the employee is being paid. Subject to approval of the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State, an employee may be concurrently employed by the same agency or institution. See Section 245, Sub-Section 8.0, "Drawing salaries from two state agencies or institutions."
	11.2	State employees may teach temporarily at state supported institutions of higher education even though their combined salaries will exceed the line item maximum (Arkansas Code 19-4-1604). Subject to the approval of the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State.
228	0.0	JOB SHARING
228	1.1	Arkansas Code 21-5-203 has been amended to allow job sharing, a form of employment in which the hours of work of two persons are arranged in such a way as to cover a single regular full-time salary position in agencies/institutions.
	1.2	The number of hours worked between the two part-time employees cannot exceed the number of hours a full-time employee would work in the same position.
	1.3	Any regular full-time salary position may be job shared. This includes miscellaneous federal grant, supplemental, unclassified and vo-tech instructor positions. Extra help positions may NOT be job shared.
	1.4	Both employees in a job share position must be part-time. The total number of hours worked for both employees for a given bi-weekly payperiod may not exceed eighty (80) hours.
	1.5	Each employee in a job share position must use the position in the same way. For example, if the position is classified as a secretary both employees must perform secretarial duties.
	1.6	Requests must be reviewed and approved by the Office of Personnel Management.
